

Consumer Privacy Request Hotline

The California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) applies to ANY business that collects or works with California consumer personal information AND fits any of the following criteria:

- Annual gross revenues over $25 million.
- Annually receives or discloses personal information related to 50,000 California residents or households.
- Derives 50% or more of annual revenues from selling California residents' personal information.

The Consumer Privacy Request Hotline will allow your consumers to:

- Inquire about personal information and its use
- Request to opt-out of the sale of personal information to other organizations
- Request to delete their personal information
